Quote of the Month

"There's a time each year
Than we always hold dear,
Good old summer time;
With the birds and the tree's\
And sweet scented breezes,
Good old summer time,
When your day's work is over
Then you are in clover,

And life is one beautiful rhyme,
No trouble annoying,
Each on is enjoying,
The good old summer time."

Lyrics by Ron Shields, In the Good Old Summertime

"The serene philosophy of the pink rose is steadying. It's fragrant, delicate petals open fully and are ready to fall, with regret or disillusion, after only a day in the sun. It is so every summer. One can almost hear their pink, fragrant murmur as they settle down upon the grass: "Summer, summer, it will always be summer."-Rachel Peden
